Remembrance Sunday

We extend a warm welcome to those who are here for the first time, do stay for coffee following the service so that we can get to know you better.

This morning's 10.30am service is led by Keith. Don't forget that you're invited to prayers before the service in the Little chapel from 10:00am onwards.

This week we will remember in prayer St Saviour's Anglican Church, Rev Martin Evans & those involved with all kinds of island transport.

Dear Church family,

I am so excited that the Methodist Centre will host the moon from November 15th - 29th.

All the events are located on the ArtHouse Jersey Website. Visitors are encouraged to book online.

For the church, I am delighted that we have an amazing all age worship planned on the 15th and a circuit service with communion and a picnic under the moon planned for the 29th. (Please bring a packed lunch and a blanket) Martin Delap will lead the service on the 22nd.

I would be grateful if a couple of people could help with coffee following the 9:30 launch on the 15th. We will have about 50 people attending this short service.

These services will attract many from the public, so I encourage us to put our extra welcoming hats on and offer everyone a joyful experience.

The services are planned, but we need teams on these dates to arrive early and help the preachers of the day to set out tables ect. We also need people to let the ministries stewards know if you are attending. We will share these numbers with ArtHouse Jersey.

Also, Martin has arranged for Rev Prof. David Wilkinson to speak twice on the 16th. David is a theologian and astrophysicist and was the Dean at St John's Durham. He will speak at 2pm and 7:30. pm. It would be great to have a few people to welcome our visitors for the 2pm talk.

An evening of reflection and music is scheduled for the 25th at 7:30pm. A few of our young people will be involved and a few local musicians and ecumenical partners. Again, book online or sign up at the church.

All of these event's tic the boxes of our church vision to create joy in worship, fun in fellowship and passion in outreach.

Thank you so much for your prayers, presence and assistance during this exhibit. Blessings, Rev Keith
